The achieved English level is 55/100 on the EF SET score scale and B2 Upper Intermediate according to the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR). The EF SET score is calculated as an average of the reading and listening scores.

Listening Section

42/100 B1 Intermediate

At this level, it is easy to understand most of the English heard on television, radio or the internet. Also, comprehending job-related language and most of what people say about feelings and events can be done without too much effort.

- Can deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken.
- Can understand the main points of clear standard speech on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc.
- Can understand the main point of many radio or TV programmes on current affairs or topics of personal interest when the delivery is relatively slow and clear.

Reading Section

67/100 C1 Advanced

At this level, it is easy to read both factual and literary texts, with recognition of differences in style and tone. Understanding complex technical writing on familiar subjects can also be done without much effort.

- Can understand a wide range of demanding, longer texts, and recognize implicit meaning.
- Can understand long and complex factual and literary texts, appreciating distinctions of style.
- Can understand specialized articles and longer technical instructions, even when they do not relate to own field.
